Table of Contents

Preface

Acknowledgements

Table of Contents

Workshop Contributions

A Few Theoretical Elements on Legal Institutional and Sociological Issues in Waters & Politics, Bernard Barraqué

Bridging the Gaps Between Technical and Political: Training Senior Water Managers what they need to know about Conflict Management, Consensus Building and Participation, Jerry Delli Priscoli

The Emergence of Sustainable and Participatory Development in Dams. Lessons from Political Science Research, Stéphane La Branche

Packaging Policies as a Vehicle for Reforming the Water Sector: the Case of the Californian drought and the Central Valley Project Improvement Act, Itay Fischhendler and David Ziberman

“Liable but not Guilty”: The Political Use of Circumstances in a River Basin Council (Mexico), Eric Mollard and Sergio Vargas Velázquez

An Assessment of Strategic Issues in the Policy Field Relating to Water Resource Management in Southern Africa, Anthony Turton

Contending Approaches to Water Disputes in Transboundary Rivers: What can International Relations Discipline Offer?, Aydınlık Kibaroğlu

Dam Debates Challenging French River-Basin Participatory Planning: A "Negociated Public Action" Perspective, Sophie Allain

Political Structure and ‘Dam’ Conflicts: Comparing Cases in Southeast Asia, Ashok Swain and Ang Ming Chee

Governance and Water Management in Asia: What do we need to Learn?, Stephen Tyler

Forces Behind Accepting / Rejecting Water pricing, Raouf F. Khouzam

The Politics of Multi-Stakeholder Partnerships for Water and Sanitation: The Significance and Worth of the World Summit Type Two Partnerships, Amy Stewart

The Politics of Water in the Mekong Region: the Case of Yunnan Hydropower Expansion, John Dore and Yu Xiaogang